As part of a CSA, you agree to share the bounty and share the risk. Please mark or initial that you have read and understand the following terms:

_____ I understand that farming is inherently risky (weather, pests, crop failures) so no crop is guaranteed, and that the produce will reflect seasonal growing patterns.

_____ I agree to return my box or bag each week at pick up.

_____ I agree to support my CSA farmer financially with a non-refundable payment at the beginning of the season.

_____ I agree to release Solar Fresh Produce and Ridgeroll Farm (Julie Vergin) from all liability relating to injuries that may occur during an on farm visit or from food borne illness. I am participating in the CSA voluntarily and understand the potential risks.

_____ I understand that I am welcome to visit the farm if I set up a time in advance with Sarah by calling (612) 810-7497
